

Key Reading Skills:

- Developing understanding of the texts to be explored as part of the English Literature GCSE
- Exploring and creating critical responses to character, theme and events.
- Considering the effect of language and structural choices made by a writer.
- Making links between a text its context, as well as writer's purpose.

Key Writing Skills:

- Imitating the style and conventions of the texts studied
- Writing accurately and creatively, including for real life audience and purposes, with clear links to the texts studied.

Key Speaking and Listening Skills:

- Challenging and developing ideas through careful and considerate use of language, including rhetoric.
- Drama and presentation skills.

Year 9 English

