

Year 7 Art and Design – Curriculum map (Please note, while Portraits will be taught first, other units will be delivered in the order the class teacher chooses depending on class needs/strengths/weaknesses)

	Portraits	Mexican Day of the Dead	Film props
Intent:	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• To understand a brief history of portrait art and create a timeline</li> <li>• To develop subject specific vocabulary in relation to describing and creating portraits</li> <li>• To develop an appreciation of a range of portraits and be able to articulate likes and dislikes in relation to them</li> <li>• To understand how to research an artist and record relevant information</li> <li>• To develop portrait drawing skills when focusing on sections of portraits and portraits as a whole</li> <li>• To use materials effectively to create a portrait</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• To understand why Mexican Day of the Dead is an important cultural festival</li> <li>• To Create an typical artists research page</li> <li>• To explore some of the traditional techniques used to create art for the festival</li> <li>• To use specific techniques to create a clay skull</li> <li>• To decorate your clay skull in a traditional manner</li> </ul>	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• To use a book (Lockwood and Co) as the basis for designing and creating movie props</li> <li>• To relate your idea to that of other movie related artists</li> <li>• To understand how to take an idea form page to concept to design to reality.</li> <li>• Use a range of materials to create your chosen prop</li> </ul>
Assessment:	Sketch book mark using success criteria sheet Multiple choice test for both units with focus on subject specific vocabulary, and identification of skill in existing work	Sketch book mark using success criteria sheet Multiple choice test for both units with focus on subject specific vocabulary, and identification of skill in existing work	Sketch book mark using success criteria sheet Multiple choice test for both units with focus on subject specific vocabulary, and identification of skill in existing work