Headteacher: Christopher Anders BA (Hons) MA

Dear Parent/Guardian

As we continue to pursue our high expectations of students with regard to attainment and self-discipline, I write to inform you about the approach we are following with Year 7 students.

If a Year 7 student disrupts the learning of others our first course of action will be to relocate the student to another class. In most cases this will be into the class of another year group. He or she will be given work to complete.

In addition to this, if the student refuses to be relocated, he or she will be sent home. The student will then be expected to return on the same day at 2.45 p.m. until 5.00 p.m. to complete work that has been missed. We think that this is important because it shows not only the consequences of poor behaviour, but also the value we place on education.

This course of action may also be used if a student breaks any school rule.

For many of you this will not apply to your son or daughter and you will understand it is important that we take a strong line with any student who disrupts the learning of your son or daughter.

Yours faithfully
