Lee Nelson Work in Progress

We're very excited to announce the continuing partnership between The Spring Arts & Heritage Centre and Park Community School with a special event programmed for this autumn. The show will be hosted in Park Community School's new theatre space and supported by The Spring. Tickets are available from The Spring's Box Office or website. There is licensed bar and free on-site parking at Park Community School.

Character comedian and prankster Lee Nelson is coming back to Park Community School! Lee is well known for many a chaos creating stunt, including storming the stage at Glastonbury during Kanye West's headline performance, infiltrating Fifa president Sepp Blatter's press conference, and inviting himself onto the X Factor stage with Stereo Kicks! Lee also has his own TV show, Lee Nelson's Well Good Show (BBC Three), and has appeared many times on BBC One's Live at the Apollo.

This work in progress show is a unique opportunity to see Lee perform some brand new material and, to quote Lee, "for not much money, before it's any good" If that didn't convince you, then we don't know what will!

In a courtroom in the middle of Bethlehem...

The cows feel pushed out of their stable and they want it back! The donkeys, accused of having invited over a whole host of people, including a baby, deny all charges.

Fed up by their petty squabbles and confused by the nature of the case, Judge Grumps is far from happy. Seeing this, the narrator offers to take him out of the courtroom to witness the night's events firsthand.

As the judge encounters bickering innkeepers, self-important wise men, cool shepherds, some dancing sheep and a spectacular angel choir, everything starts to become clear. Rushing to the stable, the judge is humbled by the sight of Jesus and when he and all the characters experience the peace and love that this special baby has brought in to the world, it seems that the judge's verdict is inevitable...

Sunday 25 December, 11.00am - 4.00pm
